Where Australia's past & future meet

The Australian Capital Territory (ACT) is the nation's governing territory, leaving a large imprint on Australia's cultural and political landscape. Centered around the meticulously planned city of Canberra, the ACT blends natural beauty with national significance, offering travelers a rare mix of history, art, nature and cuisine.

This compact region tells the story of Australia's identity, spirit, and path to independence—where Australia's past and future meet in perfect harmony.

Greetings FROM THE AUSTRALIAN CAPITAL TERRITORY

As a true-blue Aussie and owner of Swain Destinations since 1987, I've had the privilege of exploring every corner of Australia. The ACT continues to surprise me with new experiences—great food, excellent tours that celebrate Australia's culture and heritage, gorgeous landscapes, and that easygoing Aussie warmth that makes you feel like you're among mates.

I hope you'll go experience the ACT for yourself soon!

Cheers,

Ian Swain

Recreation

Nicknamed the Bush Capital for its nature reserves, forests, wetlands and gardens, at Canberra's heart lies Lake Burley Griffin—a gathering place for recreation and leisure. A water playground surrounded by green spaces, you'll find cyclists, rowers, and paddlers sharing space with picnickers and art lovers exploring the city's national treasures.

Each March, the Canberra Balloon Spectacular enchants all ages as a kaleidoscope of colorful, whimsical hot air balloons rise with the sun. Drifting gracefully over the ACT's countryside, the experience is nothing short of spectacular.

THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIA

National Treasures

Lake Burley Griffin is framed by national landmarks like the Australian Parliament House, Australian War Memorial, the National Gallery of Australia, and the National Museum of Australia.

Through Swain Destinations, enjoy special behind-the-scenes access to some of these national treasures—transforming a remarkable visit into an extraordinary one.

Tidbinbilla Nature Reserve plays a vital role in wildlife management and protection, grounded in a deep respect for its Aboriginal cultural heritage. Today, the reserve protects 14 diverse habitats and provides a safe haven for several endangered species.

Wildlife & Nature

Just a short drive from Canberra, Tidbinbilla Nature Reserve offers a unique opportunity to experience wild Australia. Stroll the Koala Path in the Eucalypt Forest, seek out an elusive platypus in the Sanctuary wetlands ecosystem, or venture out on one of 24 walking trails keeping an eye out for wandering wallabies and emus—all within this protected setting.

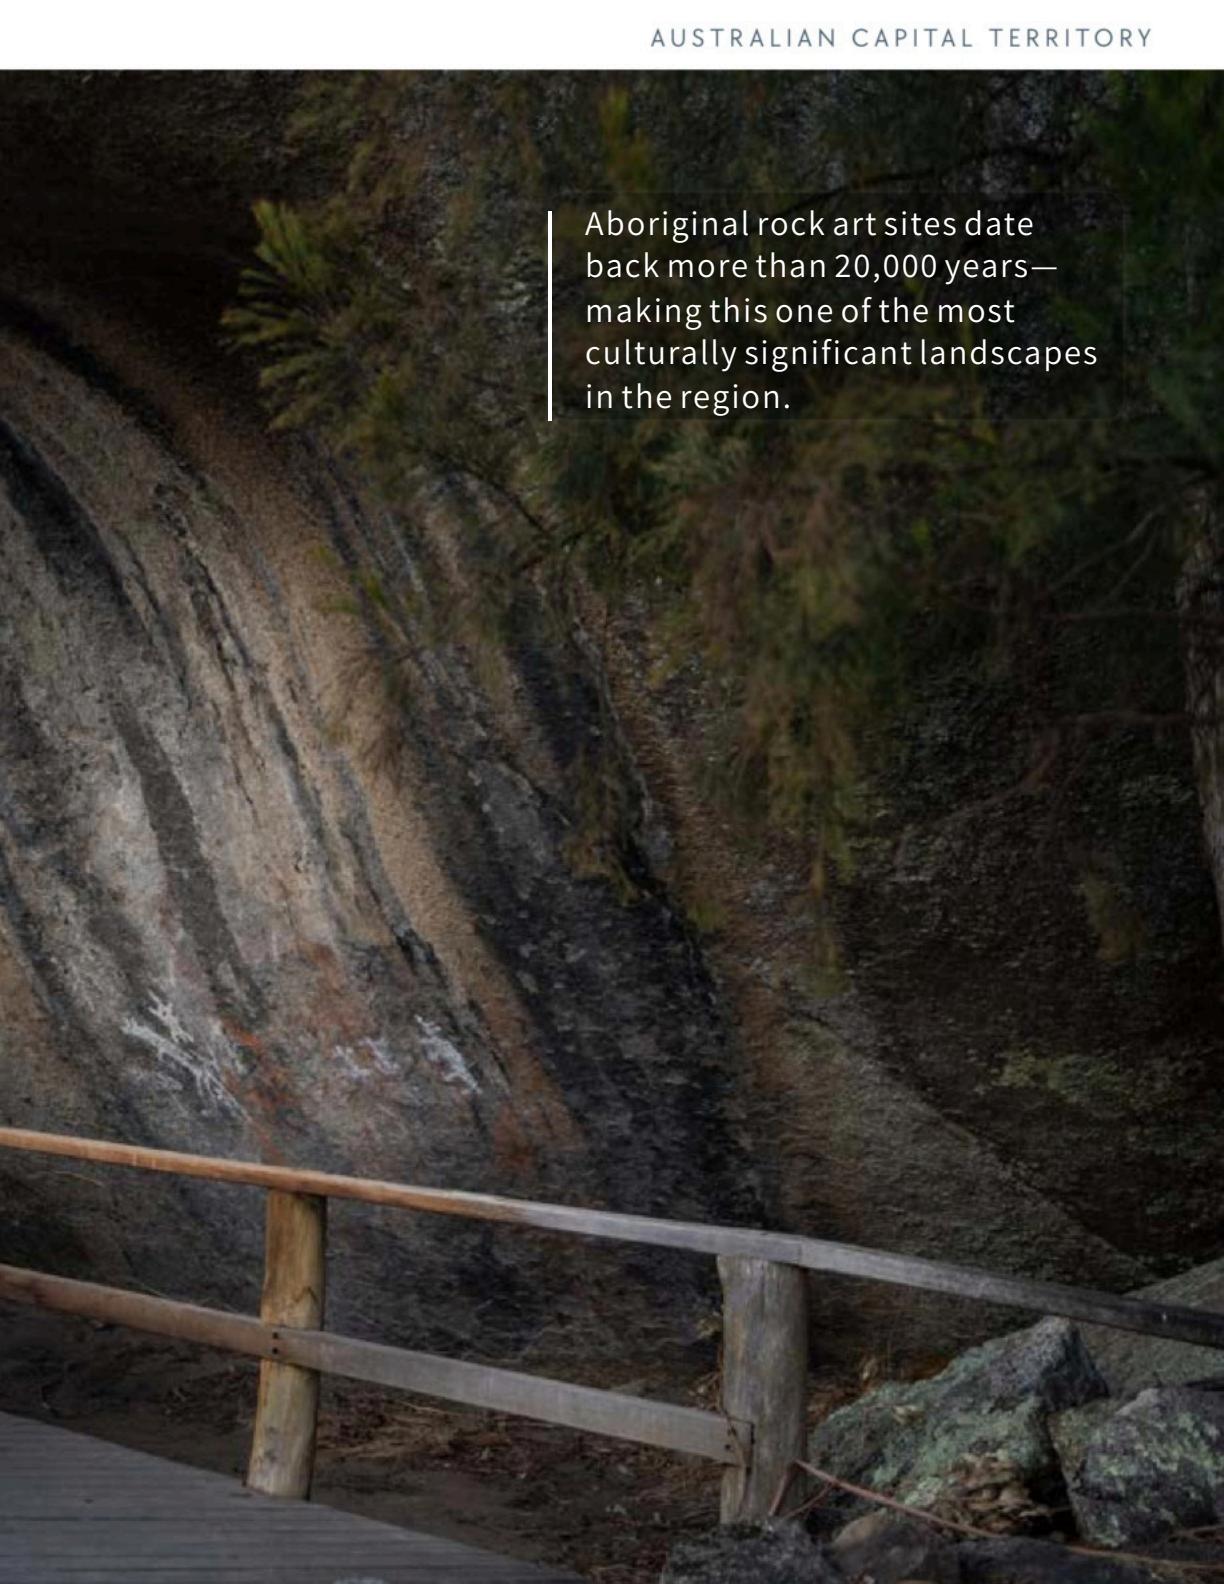

Stop at the Tidbinbilla Deep Space Communication Complex for an out-of-this-world look at Canberra's role in space exploration.

History & Culture

Namadgi National Park is an untamed landscape shaped by tens of thousands of years of Aboriginal history. To walk through Namadgi is to journey through time, where stories of First Nations culture are revealed in sacred sites, ceremonial grounds, and ancient rock art.

Aboriginal rock art sites date back more than 20,000 years—making this one of the most culturally significant landscapes in the region.

Food & Wine

The ACT's cool-climate wine regions are home to 140 vineyards and more than 50 wineries—all within a 35-minute drive from Canberra. Enjoy intimate tastings of the region's acclaimed Chardonnay, Riesling, Pinot Noir and Shiraz varieties, and meet passionate winemakers right at their cellar doors.

A burgeoning culinary scene blends vineyard-to-table dining with innovative chefs who showcase the region's seasonal abundance. That creative energy is reflected in the Territory's recent acclaim: more than 20 ACT restaurants were recognized in the 2025 Australian Good Food Guide Chef Hat Awards, underscoring the ACT's rise as a must-visit destination for foodies.

Winter (June to August) brings the thrill of truffle hunting, when you can join expert foragers and their dogs to discover prized black truffles—then enjoy them shaved over dishes at some of Canberra's top restaurants.

Where Australia's past & future meet

Australia's past and future meet in the ACT— where historic landmarks, treasured artifacts, First Nations culture, and abundant greenspaces sit side-by-side with modern art, imaginative exhibits, and bold innovation.

Due to its compact size, you can spend a morning immersed in Australia's national treasures and by afternoon be surrounded by vineyards or bushland. We recommend spending at least three nights in Canberra to truly appreciate the ACT's diverse cultural, historical, outdoor, and culinary offerings.
